This means that both the Kentucky Derby, which, as said before, will have an added money value of $20,000, and the Kentucky Handicap with $10,000 added, will be decided this year at Churchill Downs, and that the meeting, which will begin on May 10, will run for 19 days.

All told, the new Louisville Jockey club will add $150,000 to the various stakes, which means that no money is being spared to make the spring meeting this year one of the best in the history of the sport.

The plan to give up Dougias park and to center all racing in Louisville at Churchill Downs has been under consideration for some time, and now has been brought to a head by the merger under one syndicate of the Middle Western tracks. Those closely identified with the sport believe that a long step has been taken in the right direction, and that racing will be the gainer.

Two Horses Named.

Eternal and Billy Kelly have been named among others for the forty-fifth running of the historic Kentucky Derby, one of the oldest and most coveted fixtures of the American turf.

The price of a subscription has been cut in half, too. Now $500 will entitle a subscription to have a starter in each half of the race, which will be one of the spring and fall features of the United Hunts meeting at Belmont Park terminal.

NASHVILLE DEAL DOESN'T SIT WELL

Fans Displeased With Reorganization of Vols.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. Feb 17.—Spilled milk is spilled milk. Everybody knows this and nobody attempts to gather it up. And the best thing to do under such circumstances is to refill the pail and watch your step.

The same applies to recent reorganization of the Nashville Baseball association. Many of the old guards have been forced out and their places filled by new heads of whom little is known. Some may regret this, but the only thing to do is to yell. "Up and at 'em, boys, and give 'em the Dickens." This is the only spirit that will enable Nashville to have a winning team.

Many patrons of the game 'may have regretted the dethronement of President Shropshire. Also the relegation of Secretary-Treasurer Chris Haury was bit terly opposed. But there is no doubt about any man standing closer to fans than Chris, for he is one of the best posted men in this section. He has come to the reset of the club on more than one occasion when it was hard put.

No one will attempt to deny that George T. Hutchinson, who succeeds to the position vacated by Chris, is well qualified to fill the bill. Hutchinson, has been connected with the DuFout company at Hog Island, and is said to be on the job with snappy brain work. Directors to Co-operate.

Directors to Co-operate.

The association will have the co-operation of L. G. Durr and Dave Lowenheim, as well as other directors who have a pent-up enthusiasm for the game. Durr and Lowenheim are possibly better known to the Nashville fans than any of the other directors. Lowenheim's connection with local baseball dates back far some little time, even to Ted Sullivan and George Stallling's game before the latter rose to fame as a director of big league pennant winners. This was in the days before members of the Boaton team, of which he is now the directing genius, were out of their rompers.

In Durr and Lowenheim, the local team has a combination of baseball wit and sagacity. Both have traveled the rough road of experience over which the Nashville club has passed from the time of its entrance lint the Southern league. Undoubtedly they will exercise a powerful influence in directing the new organization.

So, take it all in all, the right mate-

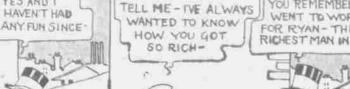

new organization.
So, take it all in all, the right material, the right spirit and proper managing will help to put the team over the top. Therefore, "Up and at 'em, boys, and give 'em the dickens!"

NICOLAI WINS.

Niccolai, of Kansas City, won the international wing shot championship, the closing event of the interstate Trapshooting tournament here yesterday, with a score of 98 out of a possible 100 targets. E. W. Renfro, of Butte, Mont., was second, with a score of 95, and Riley Thompson, of Cainesville, Mo. E. C. Hinshaw, of Spirit Lake, lowa, and Frank Troeh, of Vancouver, Wash., tied for third place with 94 each.

When Patsy Flaherty signed to lead the Louisville Colonels, one of the best managers the Southern has ever had was permitted to get away. Pat had been expected to again be in charge of the Mobile Bears, as he said last year when he entered Uncle Sam's service that he was anxious to again be in charge of the Mobile outfit.

But when Pat heard that the Mobile club was about to sell out and go to another city, he got busy himself, and had no trouble at all in landing the job of managing the Colonels, which warm berth was recently vacated by Derby Day Bill Clymer.

The Colonels are in the American association, which is one step higher than the Southern, but Finherty will have no trouble in qualifying as a Class AA leader, and he'll have those Colonels up in the front rank if given the proper chance.

Jack Dempsey has gone into bur-lesque by way of preparing for his fight with Jest Willard on July 4.

Chick Gandil has signed with the White Sox for 1919. Charley Comiskey said Chick would never play ball in his yard again. Kid Gleason said the Sox couldn't navigate without Chick. So there you are. Comiskey only owns the team. Naturally he shouldn't have anything to say about it.

Pants Rowland says the Milwaukee Brewers will not change their name, despite the fact that after July there'll be nothing to brew.

Augie Kieckhefer has been defeated for the billiard chempionship by Alfred DeOro. For which we're thankful. Kieckhefer never would go in a head-line, whereas DeOro will fit nicely.

Ralph DePalma has broken all speed records and is about to make a few more for his followers to shoot at. We'll get out our filv and see what we can do against Ralph.

If in doubt, drop down to the Lyric and drop down a few shekels and watch Pai Moore and Johnny Ritchle pummel each other's countenance tonight. It'll be a good fight and you won't get cheated.
